FEARLESS, INDEPENDENT, PROGRESSIVE NEWSPAPER

4 P.M. CITY EDITION

increasing cloudiness, probably showers in north portion; warmer in south and east portions tonight; colder in north portion Saturday.

Forty-fourth Year-No. 307.

OGDEN CITY, UTAH, FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 13, 1914.

Entered as Second Class Matter at the Postoffice, Ogden, Utah

FRENCH AND BRITISH AIRMEN IN THRILLING FIGHT WITH GERMANS

RUSSIANS IN THE TRENCHES ON THE FIRING LINE IN AUSTRIA

BOTH GERMAN AND ALLIES KEEP UNBROKEN BARRIER IN FLANDERS

Victory Seems to Depend on Which Side Will Be Able to Wear Down the Resistance of the Other-Every Foot of Ground Is Hotly Contested Along the Yser-Advances and Retirements Reported by Both Sides-Reports of Gains and Losses Conflicting.

BERLIN CLAIMS BIG VICTORIES FOR GERMANS

Official Report Says Marines Have Inflicted Heavy Losses on Allies and, to the South, Kaiser's Troops Have Captured 1800 Prisoners-French Report Alleges German Attacks Have Been Repulsed Near Ypres and Allies Have Advanced in Some Localities.

London, Nov. 13, 12:57 p. m.—A Cen- attack by the Germans delivered trail News dispatch from Rome says against those of our troops who had retaken Chavonne and Soupir was rethat the steamer Citta di Savona has sent out a wireless "S. O. S." call, saying that she is on fire 150 miles pulsed. She has 500 soldiers on board, bound from Massowa, Afriwo steamers have gone to the assistance of the distressed vessel.

London, eNv. 13, 11:30 a. m .- A supplementary estimate to provide for another million men required by the British government during the year ending March 31, was introduced in the house of commons today. This brings the total army, not including the territorials, to 2,186,400 officers

London, Nov. 13, 4 p. m.—An offi-cial dispatch from Constantinople, reaching London by way of Berlin, confirms indirectly the recent Russian statement that a Russian fleet has sunk three Turkish transports in the Black Sea. The Constantinople reports admit that there has been no news of these three ships since they left the Turkish capital a week ago. It adds that as the vessels were near Songuldak on the Black Sea, the day this place was bombarded, it is possible that they the Russian squadron.

Paris, Nov. 13, 4:41 p. m.-A thrilling encounter between eight aeroplanes, four German, two French and two British, occurred in the vicinity The German machines of Ypres. were destroyed finally by artillery and the eight officers they carried were

The Germans were seen approaching to reconnoiter the lines of the al-The French and British airships immediately ascended to meet For some time the air craft circled about each other, raising and descending while machine guns spattered bullets among them.

Suddenly the four allied aeroplanes made a swift dash toward their trenches and were followed by the Germans, who, too late discovered the feint perceived the perils of the situation only when shrapnel burst verted into trenches by plercing the about them. In a few minutes the roofs. four German aeroplanes crashed to Paris, Nov. 13, 2:45 p. m.—The French official announcement given out in Paris today says that from Lys to the sea the fighting has been less violent than on previous days. eral efforts of the Germans to cross the Yser were checked. The text of the communication fol-

"From the seacoast as far as the Lys, the fighting has been of a less violent character than on previous Several efforts of the Germans to cross the Yser canal at the western outlet from Dixmude and at other points of passage in the Amont Generally district, were checked. speaking, our positions have been maintained without damage. To the north, to the east and to the south of Ypres, attacks of the will be far reaching. enemy were repulsed at the end of the day, at different points of our line and that of the British army. From the La Bassee region to the east of Armentieres and as far as the Oise there have been artillery exchanges and actions of minor import-"In the course of the last few days of foggy weather our troops have not ceased to make progress little by little. They are today established almost everywhere at distances varying from 300 to 500 metres from the network of barbed wire entanglements of the enemy.

To the north of the Aisne we have taken possession of Tracy le Val, but with the exception of the cemetery

24th 5t

This picture has just reached this country from Austria and shows the Russians in their trenches during some of the heaviest fighting in the vicinity of Przemysl. Late reports from Petrograd state that the Austrians are everywhere on the defensive.

Berry au Bac. Violent Artillery Duel "In the Argonne there has been a Equal failure attended the violent artillery duel. "There has been minor progress in he vicinity of St. Mihiel and in the egion of Pont a Mousson.

German efforts in the environs of "A surprise attack delivered by our roops against the villages of Val and Chattalon near Circy Sur Vezouse. made it possible for us to capture a detachment of the enemy. "A German attack directed against the heights of Mount Sainte Marie resulted in failure. "It is reported that snow is beginning to fall on the heights of the Vosges mountains"

Paris, Nov. 13, 7 a. m .- The conviction is growing here that the period of the German strategic offen- contemplate anything like an extensive is drawing to a close and that the war, on both the Western and by few people in London. its third phase.

ceeded in bending the allies line in the the steep to face with the aftermore a few places, has not yet, according to either French or German reports, succeeded in breaking it and it seems impossible that the attempt to have resumed its original intensity with the German as weeks ago. Joffre Allve to Situation.

But General Joffre, the French commander in chief, is fully alive to the importance of this position, and according to an officer just returned from Vares that according to the second ed from Ypres that eventuality has been prepared for. At Ypres and its environs, although the artillery of the Germans is formidable, that of the allies is still more so and causes fearful carnage in the enemy's trenches. The fighting in this region is largely an artillery duel with the infantry remaining in the trenches. They can only approach the en-emy by boring tunnels which are con-

However important the operations oners. in Flanders may be, they are now overshadowed both in extent and the influence they have on the war as a whole by the eastern campaign. Russia to Strike Heavy Blow.

Colonel Feyler, editor of the Swiss Military Review, and one of the best known military specialists declares that Russia is now about to bring to bear all her effectives and if it is realized that she intervenes at a moment when in Flanders German levies the operations on the eastern front will be recognized.

off from the Germans and forced to adds: accept battle with its back against the Carpathians "In addition there is prospect of a battle in the center of the line from Posen to Breslau, toward which the German army of Silesta seems to be directed in retreat and at a more or less early date West Prussia will be threatened by way of Thorn."

London, Nov. 13, 2:05 p. m .- The pit could almost be covered by a surveyor's chain. Despite the limitations of the field and the intensity of the fighting, both fronts still breast one another in an unbroken barrier along the Yser. Day by day and feet by the field the control of officers killed or any local control of the field of the field of the field to follow the fighting of the field to follow the field to follow the fighting of the field to follow t with the exception of the cemetry to the northeast of this village, we have made slight progress to the east of Tracy Le Mont, and to the southeast of Nouvron, as well as between Crouy and Vregny, and to the northeast of Soissons.

"In the vicinity of Vailly a counter" of the fighting, both fronts still German invaders.

The proportion of officers killed or wounded is very great. This being wounded is very great on the advances and southeast of Nouvron, as well as between Crouy and Vregny, and to the northeast of Soissons.

To observers in London, it seems that victory depends largely on which side lark skinned soldiers offer an effection of officers killed or wounded is very great. This being wounded is very great the request or with the appartment of public authority.

The proportion of officers killed or wounded is very great. This being particularly the case with the land or proval of public authority.

The proportion of officers killed or wounded is very great. This being particularly the case with the land or proval of public authority.

The proportion of officers killed or wounded is very great. This being particularly the case with the land or proval of public authority.

The proportion of officers killed or wounded is very great. This being proval of public authority.

The proportion of officers killed or wounded is very great. This being proval of public authority.

The proportion of officers killed or wounded is very great. This being proval of public authority.

The proportion of officers killed or wounded is very great. This being proval of public authority.

The proportion of officers killed or wounded is very great. This being proval of public authority.

The proval of public authority.

The proportion of officers killed or wounded is very great. This being proval of public authority.

The proval of public authority proval of public authority proval of public authority.

The proportion of officers killed or before a the requestion to proval of public authority.

The proval of public authority pr resistance of the other.

mans to push their recent success at to speak the language of the men. Dixmude to a decisive issue has removed much of the anxiety that was battle in the Pacific. The German felt in London when the news of the fleet apparently is remaining close capture of this village was first re-ceived. As was the case three weeks ports from various places suggest that ago, when the Germans made their Japan and British warship initial crossing of the Yser, they have again been thrown back, and English observers, reading the sterile official and French announcements, Eritish and French announcements, A French torpedo boat attacked by glean the intimation that the lost the submarine is said to have run ground soon will be regained. The it down auggestion that the German attack on Dixmude was primarily intended to mask a retreat finds no support here and the theory that the invaders

Eastern frontiers is about to enter The best opinion is that even if the present battle should so develop The present violent effort in the as to enable the allies to take the or Ypres region, while it may have such fensive in force, they shortly would headquarters today gave out an officeeded in bending the allies' line in find themselves face to face with the cial announcement as follows:

can be repeated under the same considerable simultaneously with the German as attacks on Ypres which has progressingly the French claim to have checked all have been taken. that at St. Mihiel on the Meuse six the attacks of the enemy and con-

European battlefields. From the Ger- emy. man advance had made no further reached." progress.

The Berlin official statement refers to heavy fighting on the Belgian sea-coast near Nieuport, where, it is said German marines have inflicted heavy losses on the enemy. At Ypres to the south, near the French border claim is made to another German victory with the capture of 1800 pris-Severe French at in the statement of the French war office, in which it is said that the German attacks near Ypres and elsewhere have been repulsed and that the allies have advanced in a few localities.

Nothing further has been heard in London of the reported naval activity in the Baltic; of the movements

Commenting on reports that the cities met here today. British government has invoked the Russian commander seems to be ac-centuating the defense in the latter Gazette points out that the interests "are many to > Neutrality is important. "President Wilson's government rate measures passed."

> will not fall to see that our recogni> tion of this fact at the present mo-ment is a precedent for the future." of New York said: "Public utility The announcement was made officially today that the British losses is and their security should approximate that of municipal bonds. In the present war up to October 31, amounted to the big total of 57,000 men. All these gaps have been filled and big decire of Driver and Driver and will first be able to wear down the tive target for sharpshooters, who conservative investment for their realize the peculiar value to these The apparent inability of the Ger- regiments of officers who know how Indications point to another naval Japan and British warships are drawtion of a German submarine is reported unofficially from Dunkirk.

> Although the fighting at Tsing Tau has ended, a further loss of life there was reported from Tokio today. explosion of a subterranean mine kill-

Germans Report Success. Berlin, Nov. 13, via wireless to Lon-have been taken.

"Fierce French attacks to the west solidated their previous successes.

Conflicting reports came today from the opposing sides on the main pulsed with heavy losses to the en-

On the East Prussian frontier a nouncement of important suc Eydtkuhnen, and also further south
The French war office said to the east of the outlet of the Mazuthat the battle in Belgium was be- rian lakes, fresh battles have develcoming less violent and that the Ger- oped, but no decision yet has been Rates" to Be Result of Bad Politics Presented by Chicagoan.

Philadelphia, Nov. 13.-For the purof the third line, young soldiers with of the German fleet at Kiel, nor of pose of discussing public utility corsix weeks' training, are being brought the alleged sinking of three German porations, mayors and other executives of many American and Canadian tives of many American and Canadian

Ray Palmer of Chicago presented "Three Austro-German armies," he Monroe doctrine to put a stop to the statistics to show that Philadelphia continues, "are advancing toward the use of the Galapagos Islands as a pays more per mile for its electric angles of Thorn and Cracow. The Bussian commander seems to be ac warships in the Pacific, the Pall Mall or Chicago. "High rates," he said direction. If he succeeds the result of the United States in the neutrality litica, or the lack of knowledge on the direction of these islands, which Ecuador is the part of members of councils. Pub-"The Austrian army will be cut unable to maintain, is paramount, and lie utility companies have more influence in some cities than in others and often can have unsatisfactory

"Public utility investments should savings.

"The elimination of the speculator and the stock jobber from the utility field and the establishment of utility investments upon a safe, conservative non-speculative basis, is a fundament al condition precedent to good serv ice, permanently low rates and ade quate public control.

WEATHER REPORTS ARE FORBIDDEN

Paris, Oct 28—(Correspondence The Associated Press).—The publica-tion of weather reports was forbid-tracts in Montana for the purchase tracts in Montana for the purchase sumably for military reasons. Here of about 8000 head of horses. the Mediterranean, have been published daily. This has included, of course, information useful to marines. It is assumed that the govern of this information by Germany in toth naval and military operations along the western littoral. The part that fogs have played a part in the Belgian coast battles is recalled in this connection.

Only the temperature in Paris is

NEEDLE WORKERS TO BE ORGANIZED

Philadelphia, Nov. 13.-A resolution creating a committee to bring about unity and to organize the Necdle Workers' trades, the first resolution to come before the convention of the American Federation of Labor was defeated after some debate at today's session. There is a split in the ranks of the Garment Workers' Nothing of this character is hinted Statistics Showing "High thirds of the members have seceded from the regular organization resolution was introduced in the interest of those who are rebelling the regular national officers.

Both Toledo and Indianapolls want the 1916 convention of the Federa-Invitations from those cities were read to the delegates. The 1915 convention will go to San Francisco according to officers of the federa

John M. Eshleman, lieutenant-governor-elect of California, who is in Philadelphia attending the conference of mayors of American cities dressed the convention, by invitation, to deliver a word of good cheer from

MILITIA NEEDS NEW UNIFORMS

Provided With Necessary Clothing If Called for War Duty.

Washington, Nov. 13—"Should the organized militia be called into Uni-by Brigadier General A. L. Mills, chief of the division of militia affairs. The circular further recited that at the last inspection this year, nine states did not have sufficient clothing to provide one unform for each of the 100 enlisted militiamen required to be maintained for each senator and Thirty-nine state did not have sufficient clothing to provide one uniform for each enlisted Capture Ammunition, Wagman of the minimum authorized strength. The authorized strength formerly was 58 men for each infantry company, which is now to be in-creased to 65.

A number of other states did not have sufficient arms and equipment their minimum authorized

STEAMSHIP IS

Blenheim, Ontario, Nov. 13.-The steamship Colonial, leaking and in a sinking condition, was beached Pardos, seven miles from here, to-The crew was landed safely The vessel is resting on a sand bar 200 yards from shore, The Colonial which is owned by the Reid Wrecking company of Sarnia, Ont., was bound from Oswego to Milwaukce

Tokio, Nov. 13, 1:15 p. m .- An official communication made public to-day says that subterranean mines hich exploded at Tsing Tau while being removed on November 11 killed two officers and eight soldiers and njured one officer and fifty-six sol-Four hundred and thirty-six wounded Germans are in the hospital at Tsing Tau.

Honolulu, T. H., Nov. 13.—Contribu-tions here to the Belgian relief fund totalled $22,000 yesterday.

tofore forecasts and meteorological shipment of 3000 head recently conconditions throughout France, in the tracted for is to start within two English channel, southern Europe and weeks. Two agents of the French Two agents of the French sian operations in the northeast are offensive movements and swinging to developing without hindrance from the southward were again repulsed vanced through the region of Central nouncement says, removes any possi-Galicia, voluntarily evacuated by the bie danger of an invasion of Silesia, Austrians, and have crossed the low-er Vistula, occupying Rzeszow and the Lisco district. The fortress of the Lisco district. The fortress of Przemysi again is invested by the Russians, but Russian forces in the Stry Valley were forced to retreat with heavy losses by a surprise attack from an Austrian armored train and Austrian cavalry.

Paris, Nov. 13, 6:55 a. m .- According to a Petrograd dispatch to the Matin, the Germans suffered a severe defeat beyond Kalisz, losing twelve heavy guns and leaving many dead on the fields.

London, Nov. 13, 10:30 a. m - Caprain Beauchamp Oswald Duff, a son of the commander in chief of the army in India, Sir Beauchamp Duff, has been killed in action. The cap-tain was an officer of the First King George's Own Gurkah Rifles.

Baker, Ore., Nov. 13 -- Under contract with the French government to furnish 5000 cavalry horses, Robert Jones of Weiser, Idaho, has opened buying headquarters here today. Three hundred animals were acepted yesterday and 500 more are on and for inspection. Under his contract, Jones must ship the entire quota by November 27, and high prices are being offered. an average of $125 each being paid for hose bought today The animals purchased are range horses, and the only stipulation is that they must be sound and not under fifteen heads high WISCONSIN IDEA

Madison, Wis., Nov. 13.-An elucida Organize State Troops Not tion of the "Wisconsin Idea" in gov-The discussion covference today. ered the work of the railroad, tax. dairy and food, industrial and free library commissions and the legislalive reference library.

Every railroad and public utility law should contain a provision giving the commissions power to refuse any increases in rates until approved by the commission, said John Roemer, chairman of the state railroad commission.

"This requirement in the Wisconsin law has saved this state millions of ons, Hospital Depots and Numerous Prisoners.

AUSTRIANS CLAIM BIG VICTORIES

DEFEAT CAVALRY

Turks Claim Success and Enemy Retreating All Along the Line.

BEACHED ON BAR Berlin, Nov. 13-Official reports reaching here from Vienna are as fol-

"In the eastern arena of the war, the pursuit of the enemy was continued yesterday along the entire front, in spite of incessant fighting with the rear guards of the enemy who occupied especially prepared en-treachments. Generally speaking, the heights to the east of Osetchina, Ma kutischnt and Novoselo on the River Save, have been reached: emy is in full retreat in the direction of Kotschalveja and Valjevo, where according to reports from Austrian aviators, many thousands of trains have been cut off.

"In addition to war material previously captured, we became possessed of 14 ammunition wagons, several ammunition and hospital depots, tents, We have made numerous prisoners, the exact number of which has not yet been ascertained. 'Apart from the cavalry fighting in which we were successful at Kosminsk against a Russian cavalry corps no important fighting took place year terday in the northeastern arena of the war. We repulsed one of the enemy's reconnoitering parties, which was endeavoring to obtain-information of our movements. from Constantinople "A report from Constantinople translated literally reads as follows: "With God's help the enemy has been forced to evacuate his posttions and is retreating along the entare front, pursued by us on all

According to official announcement given out in Berlin today, news rereived from the eastern arena of hostilities shows that matters are proceeding favorably. The Russian cavalry forces, which were defeated pre-Berlin, Nov. 13, by wireless.—The only news reaching Berlin of the Russian operations in the worth-The Russians have ad to the east of Kalisz. This, the an-

CAUSES ALARM

Chicago Requires 1000 Tons Daily-Receives Only 300 -Price Now Twenty Dollars.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Alarm over a shortage of hay in Chicago, by reason of the quarantine was expressed by dealers today. Hay which sold at 517 a ton last week today cost $20.
This city requires 1000 tons of the feed a day but yesterday's receipts were only 300 tons.

The supply at present is sufficient for ten days and unless the quaran-tine which is scheduled to last sixty days is modified, it is said that the situation will speedily become acute.

The National Hay association, with headquarters at Winchester, Ind , has taken up the matter with the bureau of animal industry at Washington. but local dealers say that it has been able to accomplish but little.

The quarantine is so strict that not a pound of hay can be moved from one railroad to another in Chicago and southern buyers whose local markets suffered from drought, have been informed that Chicago cannot aid

PROVEN SUCCESS VILLA TO ATTACK TAMPICO TROOPS

Washington, Nov. 13.-General VIIhas ordered an attack on Tampico. His army is operating from the city of San Luis Potosi which was occupled without firing a shot. Official dispatches received here today say the people received Villa with an ovation. TRANSPORT ORDERED BACK. Washington, Nov. 13.—With quiet in Haltien revolutionary activities, Secretary Daniels today ordered the transport Hancock with 800 marines back from Port Au Prince to Guantanamo, Cuba